PROVISIONAL ALLOTMENT OF STREAMS (2022-2023)

Dear Parent

There has been no official announcement for declaration of CBSE Class X Board result. In such a situation patience and optimism are essential to beat anxiety. Since the initiation of new session cannot be postponed indefinitely therefore we have decided to allot subject streams on the basis of performance of students in Term 1 and Preboard exams . The new session will commence from 8 July 2022. Students can view the section wise list displayed on the school website and school notice board. Science stream has been allotted in section A and B while Commerce stream has been allotted in section C.

We understand that you may have many questions therefore we have provided a dedicated Email I'd and list of FAQs . Please understand that these are only provisional allotment of subjects and will be finalized after declaration of CBSE results .

There will be changes due to changes of preference by students and declaration of results by the Board . Therefore please have patience and we will be there to respond to your questions through mail at bbpsdstreams@ gmail.com . I hope you will help your ward to adopt a more patient view while looking at the subject allotment as all this will get settled soon after declaration of result by CBSE .

Soliciting your cooperation at every step to usher in an enriching year for your ward .

Best wishes for success of your ward in all his/her endeavours
