PROVISIONAL STREAM ALLOTMENTS (2023-2024)

Dear Parent

Greetings!

I congratulate all students for successfully completing an eventful year and we look forward to have them back to school.

The students have been allotted subject streams on the basis of performance in Preboard exam. The classes for class 11 will commence from 10 April 2023 and the section wise stream allotment list will be displayed on school notice board.

We understand that you may have many questions therefore we have provided a dedicated Email Id and list of FAQs to allay fears and anxiety. Please understand that these are only provisional allotments of subject and will be finalized after declaration of CBSE results.

We have taken time to take into consideration the preference given by students and their performance in Preboard exam while allotting subjects.

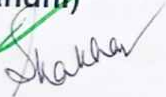

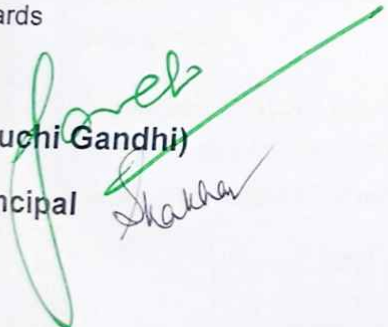

Still there will be changes due to changes of preference by students and declaration of results by Board. Therefore, we will be there to respond to your questions through mail at bbpsdwstreams@gmail.com. I hope you will help your ward to adopt a more patient view while looking at the subject allotment as all this will get settled if we do not rush or create panic for quick fix solutions.

Soliciting your cooperation at every step.

Regards

(Suruchi Gandhi)

Principal

ALLOTMENT OF additional subject	Any one of the following can be allotted as sixth subject Mathematics/ Painting / Psychology/ Physical Education

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

S.NO.	QUESTION	POLICY
1.	If I am not allotted Mathematics as main subject then can I pursue the subject as sixth subject?	Yes
2.	If I happen to score good marks in Mathematics in first term, then would I be allowed to make Mathematics as my main subject?	CBSE allows change of subject only till August.If you score more than 75% in Mathematics before August in first term,then you can swap your subject.

3.	Would I be allowed to attend the Sixth subject classes?	School offers only time table for five subjects. However supporting classes are conducted for sixth subject on working Saturdays
4.	Would I be allowed to give exam for sixth subject?	Yes, you can appear in all exams conducted by school as well CBSE for sixth subject
5.	If I get science without maths, how will I get PCM score for entrance exams ?	You can opt for Maths as an additional subject and score for PCM in CBSE board exams.
6.	Would the CBSE marksheet mention Maths or any other sixth subject as my additional subject?	No, CBSE displays all six subjects in the marksheet and does not mention any subject as additional subject.
7.	CBSE may not be able to declare results for sometime and my child wants to opt for Science. Why he/she should be forced to study commerce for that period if allotments are going to be revised?	As there are limited seats in science , it can only be allotted on merit basis. The schools are allowed to depend on their internal scores and criteria for allotment of streams.
8.	My ward has opted for humanities, why he/she has been given Commerce?	Since only handful students have opted for Humanities , it is not feasible to run the course . In case there are 20-25 students opting for Humanities stream , it will be possible to run the course.

Can I attend Mathematics classes even though I have not qualified?

It is not possible as you have been allotted another subject in lieu of Mathematics where your attendance is mandatory.
