Activity 1: My Spending Story

Step into the shoes of a young storyteller and create your very own "Spending Story" picture book. Illustrate delightful scenes that show how you might earn, save, or spend your money. Whether it is selling lemonade, tucking coins into a piggy bank, or buying a cherished toy – let your imagination soar!

For each picture, write a simple and expressive sentence, bringing your money journey to life with words and colors. Do this activity in your English notebook.

Activity 2: Creative Currency Creatures

Let your creativity run wild by crafting creatures from recycled materials. Design money-loving animals like a coin-munching caterpillar or a bird that nests in banknotes. Use cardboard, fabric, caps, or scraps to build your character. Give it an innovative name.

Weave a fun and meaningful story about its adventure with money. Bring the creature in the class and narrate the story.
